

Volunteers Needed

VOLUNTEER MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS ASSISTANT

Passionate about community and curious about marketing? Join us as a volunteer to help create engaging, community-focused social media content — a great opportunity for a student or early-career professional to gain hands-on experience.

Key Responsibilities

- Assist in planning, creating, and scheduling social media content that reflects our organization's values and voice.
- Support the development of additional marketing materials.
- Help monitor social media accounts and engage with our online community.
- Attend occasional events or meetings to capture content and connect with the community.
- Participate in brainstorming sessions and contribute creative ideas for campaigns and outreach.
- Stay informed on local events, initiatives, and stories that can be shared across our channels.
- Ensure all content and communications are aligned with our community-first approach.

What We're Looking For

- Someone who leads with heart and is genuinely excited to connect with and uplift their community.
- A keen interest in marketing, communications, or social media (experience is great, but not required!).
- Strong communication and collaboration skills.
- A self-starter with a willingness to learn and try new things.
- Comfort with basic content creation tools (Canva, Instagram, etc.) is a plus.

Why Volunteer With Us?

- Gain valuable experience in marketing and communications.
- Build your portfolio with real content and campaigns.
- Join a passionate team that puts people and purpose first.
- Make a tangible impact by helping strengthen our connection with the community.
